The Mormons of Western Nevada.

Yesterday afternoon there was an in-Vesterday aftermoon there was an informal meeting held here by some of the M smons of this part of the Statesomething in the nature of a conference; and to-day there will be a meeting at the Court House and some preaching by some of the bretheren. We have been promised some interesting statistics regarding this modest and carnest body of believers—as we know these anti-polygamons followers of Joseph Smith to oc. They number, in this county and near by here, in Washoe and Douglas counties, a hundred or more active members, and it would be hard to find an equal number of more sincere believers in any faith. They are seceders, for conscience sike, from the Utah hierarchy, and they have held to their creed and practices with a rare pertinacity and a silent, but none the less unswerving heroism, spite of the jokes of the Gentiles and the persecutions, misrepresentations and tyranies of Brigham Young and his satelites of the polygamons church—whose earthly tabernacles are in Great Salt Like City and the country round about, and "whose roots," to repeat an application employed by a good Josephite, "take hold on hell." It is an entertaining and instructive privilege to hear as carnest and well-read a convert to the teachings of Smith and his book of Moranon as our tellow townsman, Elder Millard, pour forth his denum intions of the Fabse Prophet. B igham Young. Polygamy, with these men of simple and stendhast taith, is the unpardonable, incommen as the safety of the polygamon church his denum intions of the Fabse Prophet. B igham Young. Polygamy, with these men of simple and stendhast taith, is the unpardonable, incommen as a wicked perversion of the true faith of the Latter Day Saints of the Caurch and Knagdom of Christ. Let no man, however gibt of tougue, and how well seever gifted in the arts of polemies, tackle even the most unpretentious and modest of these Josephites, thinking to formal meeting held here by some of the well soever gifted in the arts of polemics, tackle even the most unpretentious and modest of these Josephites thinking to confound or abash him. The faith of them is too well grounded in the settled and ineffable words of the Book of Mormon to be shaken; and of their knowledge of scripture phrases and applicable axioms from the prophesies of Mormondom and Jewry as well, and of their baving these munitions of the war polhaving these munitions of the war pol-emical at their to ague's end and ready J P McFarland D rowley for any emergencies or surprises, there is absolutely and literally no limit. Nat-partick Doyle W E Bartley F Janes W Freeman and lady is absolutely and literally no limit. Nat-urally such an earnest and ably tortified religion as this excites a hope amongst its possessors of seeing their faith more widely recognized and accepted; and there is a movement gaining a more and more active agitation looking to the erection here of a comfortable church Mrs Braton edifice. This is more of a hope than a purpose; but still it is cherished; and it is likely before many months to mature and bear the longed-for fruit of actual accomplishment. As things go, they are entitled to as generous an assistance from the worldly and religionless as the meagre house last night, and we are o'der and more flourishing sects for heartily ashamed that such should be whom christianity has neither prospected the case. It is an event of no for nor located any such a recent extension of the mother lode as that which was staked out and entered of record in the District of Inspiration by the Prophet whose martyr blood was the rich seed sown in the name of the Church or Mormon by a meb of intolerant "Christians" hard by the Temple of Navoo. We bespeak for them a de-

THEATER.-There was a shamefully the case. It is an event of no little moment n one's dramatic experience to be privil-ced to see so supreme an artist as M s. Bowers, and yet, instead of a well filled auditorium there were not less than twenty or thirty empty chairs. This lady's acting was grand and mognificent in the sad character of Mary Queen of Scots; and the fact that it was so, even in the Christians. hard by the rempte of Navyo. We bespeak for them a decent and kindly consideration when their emissures shall ask for non Markon moneys to enable them to put their religion under a shelter of its own here at the Capital of the State.

THE CIRCUS AND MENAGERIE.-Again we enter upon the pleasing task of giving zest and edge to the anticipation of the great exhibition of the wonders of the animal kingdom and the agile per-tormers of the arena which will be displayed to this favored prople on to-mor-row afternoon and evening. And again, from a mere poverty and utter drouth of words do we have recourse to that flowing river of the terms and figures of entertaining description the veteran devotes to the cause of news and truth whose cornscations lend a moral glow to the local department of our excellent contemporary, the Territorial Enterprise. Describing the scenes incident to the circular in Virginia of this, the grandest exhibition ever brought into the Great Basin, and the performances thereof in the afternoon and evening of Friday he says: The circus arrived in this city yesterday morning on time. The grand parade through town attracted great attention and set all the young Arabs in the streets wild with joy. The Piutes also were much excited and charged about like so many Spanish steers. The eleventh of the property of the property as they words do we have recourse to that flowlike so many Spanish steers. The ele-phant was what got them most, as they could not decide which and his tail was o.i. The two large tents were crected on the base ball ground and an afternoon the base ball ground and an afternoon performance was given, though it was late before it began. The afternoon attendance was fair but not large. Many persons dfd not go because they thought there would be no afternoon show. Last evening, however, the circus-loving, in one grand avalanche, rolled down the slope of Mount Davidson and completely crammed the huge tents. In the tent devoted to the circus department every seat and sanare inch tents. In the tent devoted to the circus department every seat and square inch of space was occupied. The performance seemed to give general satisfaction. There was much good riding by both male and femile performers; plenty of tumbling and all that sort of thing, and the usual jokes cracked by the clown. The trained dogs are very clever and their feats awoke the enthusiastic soul of Young America as it can only be of Young America as it can only be aroused by the tricks of dogs, monkeys and a clown. Prof. Conklin displays great nerve in his berformances with his dangerous pets, the two black-mained lions and a leopard. He feeds these with meat from his own hands, and walwith meat from his own hands, and wallops them about with his whip as recklessly as though they were so many curs. Such feats as his are daring because very dangerons. Submissive as the huge beasts appear, like all of the cat kind, they are treacherons.
The lion-tamer never knows when he is entering his cages for the last time, but with most of them there has been a last time. In the m magerie de partment the time. In the m magerie department the GROCERIES youthful mind will find much congenial food in the contemplation of the pranks of the monkeys and the calm satisfaction displayed by the elephant as his trunk shoves into his capacious mouth the many contributions of cake and candies he receives.
